

WE WILL

NOT BE

SILENT

Moms On A Mission

Difficulties in accessing health care and childcare have disproportionately impacted women during the pandemic. Mothers need a healthier America with higher wages, paid family leave, universal pre-K, and a robust clean air plan. Health and family should be the number one concern of Congress.

Senator, you must consider the needs of mothers and families when you vote against legislation that affects our ability to raise healthy, productive families.